point of the law they may perhaps

Further as the information required by 9 The existing Rule 308(1) of the Jail

Manual was ~~incorporated~~ introduced by the G.O. of 23.6.1926 (Flag S).

10 Three months thereafter, orders were issued constituting Advisory Boards (G.O. of 29.9.1926) * who were empowered to consider the cases of long term prisoners also.
The cases of several prisoners mentioned in the list forwarded by the J.G. had been considered by the Board but their recommendations had been vetoed by Govt.

11 The J.G. now recommends under Rule 308(1) that all the 16 life term convicts
mentioned by him may be released.

12 It is, in the first place, a point for consideration whether the G.O. of 29.9.1926
does not in effect supersede that of 23.6.2

Secondly, all the ~~informa~~ particulars required by Rule 308(v) about the said prisoners have not been given.

Thirdly, the cases about the prisoners of the Madras Presidency, will have to be referred to the Madras Govt & full nominal rolls of such prisoners will have to be forwarded.

12 It is a point for consideration whether the D.G. may not be requested to place all these 16 cases before the Board and submit their recommendations in the orders of Govt.

Draft is suggested.

It is noted that all the 16

It is stated that all these 16 Cases were placed before the Board on 15.10.30 and that the 10 Cases which had been submitted to Govt. of the 11 Cases which were not submitted to Govt., the Board's orders are to postpone the consideration of some of the Cases for a period of 6 months and some Cases for consideration at the next meeting. It is not clear why these Cases should not be brought up before the Board at a date yet to be determined at its next meeting. As regards the 5 Cases reported to have been submitted to Govt.
 their present stage are as follows:—

 in their behalf does not therefore arise.
 As regards (D) 7383 Kullem (D) 8074, neither the Board of Enquiry recommended their release nor Govt. have referred their Cases back to the S.H. Board for stating clearly their reasons for recommending their release as they

The intent of the amendments sought to be now is that cases that are now coming up under Rule 308 of the Jail Manual should also go before the Advisory Board and come up to Government with their recommendations. This means in effect that all cases for revision of sentences should go before the Advisory Board. It is therefore necessary that the two rules viz. Rule 4 of the Advisory Board Rules and Rule 308 of the Jail Manual should be combined so that they may not be inconsistent with each other. As the two rules stand now there is some over-lapping and inconsistency.

Rule 4 according to the amendment suggested comprises prisoners of all sorts, classes I, II & habituels and non-habituals and prisoners undergoing sentences of all terms including life ~~and~~ convicts. Rule 308 refers only to life convict and those undergoing transportation or imprisonment for 14 years and above. Under Rule 4 the case of a prisoner undergoing 14 years sentence would come up for revision of sentence before the Board when he has completed two-thirds of 14 or $9\frac{1}{3}$ years of his sentence and a life convict of class III when has completed 13 $\frac{1}{3}$ years. but according to le 308 as amended these cases should be placed r revision two months before completion of 14 ars. Cases coming ^{up to Govt} ~~up~~ from the Advisory Board e recommended for release on probation; while cases coming up under Rule 308 the release

y be unconditional. In the Rules as framed r the Advisory Board there is no operative ause which ~~states~~ ^{declares} what Government ^{can} ~~has~~ to do ter receipt of ^{the} recommendations, similar to th st portion of Rule 308 (1). The two rules may be mbined and inserted as Rule 308 (1) of the Jai
nual as follows:-

"Standing Advisory Boards constituted by the vernment shall sit at least once in 6 months,
d in accordance with the rules framed therefo

(a) that non-habituals have served two-thirds

lf years including remissions;

(b) that habituals have served three-fourth their sentence and have also served not less

~~This concession will not be extended to habit

(c) that life-term convicts of I and II cla

Bangalore, Dated

S. Subba Rao, Esq., B.A., M.B.C.M., M.R.C.S.(Eng)
L.R.C.P., D.P.H.

Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Law Department, Bangalore.

the honour to forward herewith copy of letter No. 2374/115-30, dated the 29th instant, together with the enclosures, in original, received from the Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, in the matter of release of 16 life-term convicts of his Jail. As the lifers have undergone more than 14 years' imprisonment including remission, I recommend their release under amended rule 308 (1) of the Mysore Jail Manual.

2) I may, in this connection, bring to the notice of Government that the purpose of the formation of the Advisory Board was "to facilitate the revision of the sentence of long term prisoners with a view to their release on probation prior to the termination of their sentences," (Vide Government Order No.G. 3446-55/Pris. 39-24-22 dated 29th September 1926). The Chief Court also opined that the Advisory Board should base its recommendations "entirely on the convicts' Prison or other records." The formation of the Board, I take it, was one step in advance over the provisions of rule 308 (1) of the Mysore Jail Manual, in as much as a life convict, could by the Board be recommended for release when he had finished about 12 years of his sentence as against 14 years provided for in section 308 (1).

3) Viewing the question in the abstract, any vetoing of the recommendation of the Advisory Board would amount to this: that that the considered opinion of the Superintendent of the Jail (who is the best judge of a convict's character in Jail) and of the other members of the Board who consider each case comprehensively on its merits, fails to weigh against the opinions of the Police and the Villagers whose opinions are, as pointed out in the Superintendent's letter, based on conduct observed at the time of the commission of crime more than a decade before.

Q Taking a concrete example, it will be kindly noted that in spite of repeated recommendation by the Advisory Board convicts No. 6374 Erathimma and No. 6375 Chinna Thimma concerned in S.C. No. 14 of 1920 have not been released presumably on the ground that British Police are not in favour of their release whereas the Board's opinion in respect of two others Nos. 6372 and 6373 was accepted.

S/ In effect, the purpose of the formation of the Advisory Board as also of rule 308 (1) is being totally defeated by the continued detention of convicts due for release and this affects the morale and discipline in the Jail.

I request the Orders of Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Subbarao

Inspector-General of Prisons.

Ans.

Letter No. 2374 dated the 9th December 1930 from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bangalore, to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

In forwarding herewith a petition presented by sixteen life convicts and also their Nominal Rolls, I have the honour to state that prior to the constitution of the Advisory Board the release of life convicts was governed by rule 308 (1) of the Mysore Jail Manual as amended in G.O. No.G. 10484-95/Pris. 29-25-26 dated the 23rd June 1926. According to this amended rule their release depended on the recommendation to the Government by the Jail Superintendent, which was based on the conduct of the convict inside the Jail. The recommendations, I understand, were being without exception automatically sanctioned by Government and the releases effected.

With a view to still more liberalise the above rule the Advisory Board was constituted in 1927 By G.O. No:G.3446-55/Pris.39-24-22 dated 29-9-1926, according to which life convicts who had completed 2/3 of their sentence including remission became eligible for release on probation of good conduct during the unexpired term of imprisonment.

In practice the G.O. above referred to has resulted in great hardship on the lifers and they are in a worse plight than before, in that the recommendations of the Board are based not only on their conduct inside the Jail but also on the reports of the villagers and the Police. The opinion of the villagers and the police is generally influenced by the conduct of the convict at the time of commission of crime, which is nearly a decade back, without any regard to his subsequent conduct in the Jail.

In the majority of cases, owing to long incarceration in the Jail and Repentance, the lifers change their conduct and character for the better and in very rare cases they relapse into crime after release. Of late several recommendations made by the Advisory Board based on the conduct of the convicts inside the Jail have been vetoed by Government on the ground that the villagers and the police were not in favour of the release.

As stated above, the villagers and the police are prejudiced prejudiced against the convicts as they judge them on their re and not on immediate antecedents. Of the petitioners, one has served more than 16 years, another nearly 16 years, 12 others in more than 14 years including remission and their plight is very hard and pitiable. Repeated recommendations of the Advisory Board, for the release of convicts Nos. 6374 Erathimma and No. 6375 Chiina Thimma concerned in Kolar S.C.No. 14 of 1919-20 who have served nearly 16½ years' and 16 years' imprisonment including remission respectively are being vetoed by Government, on the ground that the British Police are not in favour of their release, while 6372 Ayyaga and 6373 Ramjiga concerned and sentenced in the same case were on the recommendation of the Board released on 29-1-1930 as per G.O. No.G.8844-6/Pris. 6-29-30 dated 28-1-30. These convicts are even prepared to stay within Mysore State during the period of their probation, to secure their release. The vetoing of the recommendation of the Advisory Board has produced on the lifers mental depression and may eventually affect the discipline of the Jail,

I therefore request you to favourably consider the accompanying petition in the light of the facts noted above and make necessary recommendations to Government to remove the anxiety and despondency of the lifers.

I may add, in conclusion, that in Madras the cases of life-term convicts are not dealt with by the Standing Advisory Boards but direct by Government on completion of 14 years' imprisonment including remission under rule 310 of the Madras Jail Manual.

With reference to your memo No.C. 739-11 of the 2nd instant regarding the release of 16 life-term convicts of this Jail, I have the honour to forward herewith, as desired, the records of the marginally noted 5 such convicts who had been recommended for release by the Standing Advisory Board.

It can be seen from these files that all these cases had been placed before the Board at successive meetings held after the prisoners completed 2/3rd of their sentence.

In conclusion I have to bring to your notice that these prisoners are bitterly complaining against their lot to every visitor to the Jail including non-officials visitors. They have become despondent and may drive themselves to desperation and spread disaffection among others. I request you therefore to urge the Government to sanction the release of all these prisoners whose conduct in Jail has been so far satisfactory.

To

The Inspector General of Prisons
in Mysore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter N 739-5 dated 13th February 1931 recommending the release of certain life-term convicts of the Central Jail, under amended Rule 308 (i) of the Mysore Jail Manual, I am directed to state that merely because such cases fall under Rule 308 (1) of the Mysore Jail Manual it does not mean that they should not be dealt with by the Board or that Govt. should act solely on the advice of the Supdt. of the Jail. The rules governing the duties of the Standing Advisory Board seem to be wide enough to ^{cover} ~~cover~~ the cases of the life convicts also if these have served the requisite term of imprisonment.

with a view, however, to make the point clear, I am to request you to kindly forward the necessary amendment to Rule 4 of the Rules issued with the Govt. order of Sept. 1926 for the approval of Government.

The general observations contained in your letter No. 739-5 dated 13th February 1931 as regards Govt's discretion to veto
the recommendations of the Advisory Board are beside the point.

The Secretary to the Resident.

Sir,

I am directed to invite reference to your endorsement No. 8253/179-1930 dated the 29th October 1930 forwarding copy of letter No. 575 Ms. dated the 13th October 1930 from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras in the matter of releasing from the Central Jail, Bangalore, four prisoners belonging to the Madras Presidency. It is reported by the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore that two of these prisoners, viz., Erathimma and Chinnathimma have undergone imprisonment (including remissions) for nearly $16\frac{1}{2}$ and 16 years, respectively, and that their conduct in Jail had been uniformly good.

If these prisoners had been residents of this State they would have been released on probation or otherwise according to the local Jail rules and as a matter of fact two persons who were convicted and sentenced for life along with the prisoners now under reference were so released more than one year back.

The Inspector General points out that such difference of treatment depending on the domicile of the convicts and the unduly prolonged detention of some of them in spite of repeated recommendations for their release made by the Advisory Board are calculated to cause dissatisfaction among life convicts and undermine the morale of the prisoners by weakening the incentive for good conduct.

It is understood that in the Madras Presidency also, life term convicts whose conduct in Jail has been uniformly good are generally released on the completion of 1 years imprisonment, including remissions, under Rule 310 of the Madras Jail Manual.

In the above circumstances, I am to request you to be so good as to move the Government of Madras to reconsider their decision in the case of the two prisoners under notice.

I have etc.,

Chief Secretary to Government.

Prisoners - Erathimma and Chinnathimma - Release of - Your letter No. 2408/179-1930 dated 1st April, 1931.

I am directed to say that from the statement attached to the Mysore Government's letter No. Pol. 101/Pris.10-30-2, dated 28th July, 1930, a copy of which was forwarded to this Government with Major Loch's letter No. 6317/179 of 1930 dated 12th August 1930, it is observed that the two prisoners Erathimma and Chinnathimma were sentenced to transportation for life only on 5th July 1920, i.e. about 10 years and 9 months ago. Section 396 I.P.C., under which they were convicted relates to murder in dacoity. It is not therefore clear how they could have already undergone imprisonment (including remissions) for nearly $16\frac{1}{2}$ and 16 years, respectively, as stated in paragraph 1 of the Mysore Government's letter No. Pol. 929 Pris. dated 18th March, 1931, forwarded with your letter under reply.

2. I am nevertheless to say that in the circumstances stated by the Mysore Government the Madras Government withdraw their objection to the release on probation of the two prisoners in question, and I am to ask that they may be placed, on release, under the care of village magistrate Ranga Reddy of Gowrivarapalli village of Penukonda Taluk, Anantapur district.

Dated, Bangalore the 17 Sept. 31

The Rules issued with the G.O.
ted 29th September 1926 amended by the O. dated 25th February 1928 read above ovide for the consideration by the visory Board, of all cases of long rm prisoners, provided they have specified undergone a ~~xxxxxx~~ portion of their sentence including remissions, while the amended rule 308 (1) of the Jail Manual requires that the cases of all life convicts and of all prisoners sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment or for transportation or for terms exceeding in the aggregate 14 years should, when the period of sentence undergone, together with any remission earned amounts to 14 years, reported to Government. A doubt has, however, been expressed whether the cases falling under the latter rule can be considered by the Advisory Board.

2. Government are of opinion that the fact that certain cases of prisoners come under the purview of the amended Rule 308 (1) does not mean that they should not be dealt with by the Advisory Board ^{or} that Government should act solely on the advice of the Superintendent of the Jail. ⁷ To make the point clear and also ^{the} to prevent overlapping that ^{to some extent} exists at present in the two sets of rules above referred to, Government are pleased to order the following modifications:-

(1) For the existing Rule 308 (1) of the Jail Manual Volume I, substitute the following:-

- "Standing Advisory Boards constituted by the Government shall sit at least once in 6 months, and in accordance with the rules framed therefor, consider the cases of all prisoners placed before them and make their recommendations to Government. The cases of all prisoners who satisfy the following conditions shall be placed before such (Standing Advisory) Boards with full details as to the character, antecedents and conduct in jail, etc., of the prisoners:-

(a) that non-habituals have served two-thirds of their sentence and have also served two and a half years including remissions;

(b) that habituals have served three-fourths of their sentence and have also served not less than three years including

(c) that life-term convicts of I and ~~II~~ class must have served 14 years of their sentence including remissions and that life term convicts of III class, two-thirds of 20 years including remissions.

The concession in Clause (b) will not be extended to habituals a second time.

Remission includes remission earned under the rules contained in this Manual or under any order of Government, Rule or Law, relating to such remissions.

The Government may thereupon consider the recommendation of the Standing Advisory Boards and direct

(a) that the prisoner be immediately released or

(b) that the prisoner shall be released in the ordinary course on the expiry of the sentence less the period of remission earned or

(c) in case he is a life convict that he shall not be released without a further reference to Government or

(d) that the prisoner shall be released on probation for the period of which in no case exceeds the unexpired portion of the original sentence.

(2) Substitute the following for ^{Rule 4} Rule 4) as amended in the G.O. read above:-
